

Activities for Research Day 2023

- Oral presentation (categories: undergraduate, postgraduate)
- Poster presentation
- Ultimate Research Day

Instructions for oral presentation

1. Oral presentation can be presented either physically in-person or via Google Meet on day of event. Those who chose to present online are requested to have their cameras switched on.
2. It will be an 8-minute presentation, followed by a 2-minute Q&A.
3. All presenters are to pre-record their 8-minute PowerPoint presentations and submit a copy to the organisers by 5pm 15 August 2023 (Tuesday). Presenters must have a virtual display of themselves set at a corner of the slides. The pre-recordings may be displayed on the day of event in cases of technical issues, after which will then be followed by 2-minute Q&A.
4. At least 3 undergraduates and 3 postgraduates (MInTFM, alumni or those from MOH) abstracts will be listed out for oral presentation.
5. RUMC academic staff who submitted their abstract could be chosen for oral presentation but no prizes to be given.
6. Selected oral presenters will be informed by 30/7/23 (Sunday)

Instructions for poster presentation

1. Submit your e-poster as a 1-page PDF file in landscape orientation. Click here for reference / guidance.
2. All e-posters will be displayed online at RUMC from 16-18 August 2023 (11am till 3pm).
3. All presenters are to pre-record their 3-minute poster presentation and submit a copy to the organisers by 5pm 15 August 2023 (Tuesday). Presenters must have a virtual display of themselves set at a corner of the slides.
4. Presenters' 3-minute pre-recorded presentation will not be played on event day. Instead, there will be a 2-minute Q&A session for each presenter with the judges. E-poster presenters are allowed to be present either physically (in-person) or via Google Meet to answer the questions.
5. At least 6 poster abstracts will be listed out for e-poster pre-recording presentation.
6. RUMC academic staff who submitted their abstract could be chosen for poster presentation but no prizes to be given.
